

LOCATION

Târgoviște, a city located in the central-southern part of Romania, the capital of Dâmbovița County, has a rich history whose traces are still preserved. Targoviște was capital, a long while ago, and royal residence with the status of the most important economic, political, military and cultural center of Wallachia. The modernization of the Romanian society at the end of the 19th century was a great economic boost, illustrated by the illumination of the city in 1863, by the inauguration of the diligence race, by the Bucharest-Targoviste railway, by the establishment of the first industrial enterprise - the Army Arsenal - and by the construction of the oil refineries. In Târgoviște can be admired buildings such as Chindia Tower, part of the monument complex Royal Court, the symbol of the city; The Dealu Monastery, an important foundation and reigning monastery in Wallachia and, in the same time, the place where the most rulers of the country sleep, such as Vlad Dracul; Stelea Galleries; Coconut House, etc
