WORK EXPERIENCE

29/06/2015–10/07/2015

Practitioner

Center for Inorganic Theoretical and Applied Chemistry Research, Bucharest (Romania)
Internship

13/06/2016–03/07/2016

Practitioner

S.C. HOFIGAL EXPORT-IMPORT S.A., Bucharest (Romania)
Specialist practice

15/09/2016–29/09/2016

Practitioner

Center for Inorganic Theoretical and Applied Chemistry Research, Bucharest (Romania)
Internship

26/05/2017

Participant

Session of Student Scientific Communications, Bucharest (Romania)

30/09/2016

Voluntary

The Night of European Researchers, Bucharest (Romania)

Voluntary

Exchange of experience

I was part of the project: Exchange of Experience both as a volunteer and as a third participant years in a row. This exchange of experience was carried out between the Chemistry Faculty of the University of Bucharest and West University of Timisoara.

11/09/2017–22/09/2017

Practitioner

Institute of Physical-Chemistry, Bucharest (Romania)
Internship

27/08/2017–31/08/2017

Voluntary

European Conference on Molecular Magnetism (ECMM 2017), Bucharest (Romania)

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

01/10/2014–29/06/2017

Bachelor's degree

Faculty of Chemistry, University of Bucharest, Bucharest (Romania)

Specialization: Chemistry

Bachelor thesis: Oligonuclear compounds and self-assembling coordinate polymers trifeniltin(IV)

15/09/2010–30/06/2014

High school diploma

Alexandru Vlahuță National College, Ramnicu Sarat (Romania)

Theoretical Profile: Mathematics-Informatics

Communication skills

I have good communication skills acquired during my term as president of the Association The Chemistry Students of the University of Bucharest, a mandate that took place between 2016 and 2017, this association aims at volunteering and student representation. Following this experiences we have accumulated a wide variety of abilities such as: teamwork, organizational skills, ability to adapt in any situation.
I am a sociable person, open and positive.

Job-related skills

During the internship and professional practice, I understand that in a lab it is very important teamwork, patience, continuing desire to know, trying new things and never to beat you because each failure is a small step towards much desired success.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Presentations

On 26.05.2017 I participated in the "Scientific Communication Session" of the Faculty of Chemistry. During this sessions of scientific communications I presented the research activity on which I did it until that time in the lab. The name of the presentation was: "Compounds oligonuclear and self-assembling co-ordinating polymers with triphenyltin(IV) knots".
